

Explore the Art of Photography and
The Eastern Sierra Nevada Mountains
February 25 - March 2, 2024

Beneath the awesome escarpment of the Sierra Nevada Mountains, a series of granite ridges and pinnacles rising more than two miles above its base, we will gather for a week of outstanding photography and photography instruction with Bruce Barnbaum, Al DaValle and Mark Gardner.

This workshop is for anyone with the enthusiasm for improving his or her art of photography in your favorite subject matter, be it fashion, architecture, photojournalism, landscape or anything else of greatest interest to you. Whatever your approach — digital or film, color or black & white, whatever your style and whatever your subject matter — this workshop will open new doors into the art of photography. To for more information please click HERE, or contact Mark at 360-472-0191 or Email.

